

Eye On Our Community

The Believe to Achieve Mentoring Program is pleased to Partnership with the Bladen County Community at the Baldwin Branch Missionary Baptist Church, 4047 NC 242 Highway South; Elizabethtown NC.

The Mission of this partnership will be to enhance the College Bound Population of High School age students inside, the Baldwin Branch Church as well as, the entire Bladen County Community.

The Purpose is to provide College interested students with the Reading /Verbal & Math tools needed to meet the S.A.T. score requirements of the various Universities and Colleges. It has been identified that many of our students have good grades in their classes and thus have great GPA's. Yet, when applying for College they become aware at the end of their Senior year that they have not been excepted anywhere because, they do not meet the S.A.T. standards.

Therefore, S.A.T. Prep classes will be held at the Baldwin Branch Missionary Baptist Church by a certified teacher on Tuesdays from 4:00 PM - 6:00 PM. Willie J. Guinyard - Founder / Executive Director Believe to Achieve

GIVE YOUR MOM SOME EXTRA HELP

By Brenda Brown

Social Security Public Affairs Specialist in Fayetteville, NC
Mother's Day is right around the corner. It's always nice to give Mom a card, flowers or candy, but this year, people all over the country are helping their moms save an estimated $4,000 annually on the cost of Medicare prescription drugs. You can help your mom too—and it won't cost you a dime.

If your mother has Medicare coverage and has limited income and resources, she may be eligible for Extra Help—available through Social Security—to pay part of her monthly premiums, annual deductibles and prescription co-payments.

To figure out whether your mother is eligible, Social Security needs to know her income and the value of her savings, investments and real estate (other than the home she lives in). To qualify for the Extra Help, she must receive Medicare and have:

- Income limited to $17,505 for an individual or $23,595 for a married couple living together. Even if your mom's annual income is higher, she still may be able to get some help. Some examples where income may be

by Brenda Brown
Social Security Public Affairs Specialist in Fayetteville, NC

higher include if she and, if married, her spouse:

- Support other family members who live with them;
- Have earnings from work; or
- Live in Alaska or Hawaii.

Resources limited to $13,440 for an individual or $26,860 for a married couple living together. Resources include such things as bank accounts, stocks and bonds. We do not count her house or car as resources.

We have an easy-to-use online application that you can help Mom complete. You can find it at www.socialsecurity.gov/prescriptionhelp. To apply by phone or have an application mailed to you, call Social Security at 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800-325-0778) and ask for the Application for Help with Medicare Prescription Drug Plan Costs (SSA-1020).

To learn more about the Medicare prescription drug plans and special enrollment periods, visit www.medicare.gov or call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227; TTY 1-877-486-2048).

This Mother's Day, give your mom a gift she can really use without spending a dime—savings of around $4,000 a year on her Medicare prescription drug costs! Flowers wither and candy won't last long, but the Extra Help through Social Security will keep on giving throughout the year. And keep in mind as Father's Day approaches, you can get the same "free gift" of Extra Help for Dad!

Tips For Keeping Your Child's Visit To The Dentist A Safe One

(NAPSI)—While going to the dentist is vital because oral health affects overall health, parents should be aware of specific precautions to take to protect their children during visits to the dentist and orthodontist.

There are a number of infection control measures that should be standard in every office for every patient:

- Dental and orthodontic professionals should wash their hands and put on fresh gloves and a new mask before beginning work in the mouth.
- All single-use items should be disposed of. If offices reuse these items, they risk the possibility of spreading disease.
- After every patient, the treatment area and all equipment should be cleaned and disinfected with a hospital-grade disinfectant, not just household cleaner. Plastic barriers should cover as much equipment as possible.

There is equipment customized for kids that can create a safe and comfortable environment for junior patients. "One key to encouraging children's participation at dental and orthodontic checkups is to make the experience more pleasant and less scary," says Noel Brandon-Kelsch, a registered dental hygienist and the infection control columnist for RDH magazine. She suggests parents make a few simple requests of their dental and orthodontic professional:

- Request a disposable bib clip for your child. Metal bib clips are cold on the neck and can harbor bacteria. Researchers at Tufts University School of Dental Medicine and the Forsyth Institute found that 20 to 30 percent of bib clips still had bacteria on them even after being disinfected. The same study found that bib clips from orthodontic offices had 11/2 to two times as many bacteria on them as clips from an endodontic dental clinic before disinfection. The researchers speculated that young patients might be more prone than older ones to touch the bib clip during treatment. A disposable bib clip is guaranteed to be bacteria-free.

- It's imperative to make sure your child receives an X-ray apron with a built-in thyroid guard to use during X-rays. Although there is no specific research indicating a correlation between thyroid cancer and dental and orthodontic X-rays, according to the American Cancer Society, people who receive head or neck radiation treatments in childhood are at increased risk for thyroid cancer. Built-in thyroid collars are required to shield the thyroid from unnecessary radiation during X-rays of the mouth. Recent innovations in the design of X-ray aprons have also made them lead-free, and thus 30 percent lighter than leaded aprons while offering the same level of protection. Brandon-Kelsch adds, "Parents should request a kid-sized X-ray apron that covers small bodies appropriately. The apron should be clean and not have any tears or creases that would compromise the protective layer of the apron."

Protect Your Child

(NAPSI)—Parents need no longer fear the dreadful note home from school announcing an outbreak of head lice, if they heed these hints:

- A weekly head check can help you stay ahead of an outbreak. According to a recent survey, 56 percent of parents do one. Lice lay eggs in warm, moist areas around the head.
- Wash your family's hair with a product clinically proven to help prevent them, with organic herbs and natural plant extracts, and no chemicals or pesticides. Called Rosemary Repel®, the shampoo and crème conditioner gently cleanse, nourish and protect hair.

If you still get lice: Vacuum floors, carpets, beds, car seats and couches; wash bedding daily in hot water. Dry on high heat; and consider Lice Good-Bye. Safe, easy, natural and clinically proven to remove lice and their eggs, its Terminator Metal Lice Comb has micro-grooved teeth that are gentle on the scalp.

You've Got the Power to Go Green (and Save Money, too!)

At PWC, we take pride in offering more than utility services. As the caretakers of our community's water and energy supply, we know the importance of conserving our valuable natural resources. But, we also realize we can't do it alone, so we make it part of our job to provide you with as many ways as we can to help you join our conservation efforts.

Now, you've got the power to go green. With programs such as the Refrigerator Incentive Program, the HVAC Program, and the Home Efficiency Home Audit Program, we make it easy to choose how you're going to conserve. And, there are more programs on the way!

Also, all of our programs offer incentives. These incentives are credits on your monthly bill, so you can start saving money as soon as you start conserving.

At PWC, we've got the conservation programs; now, you've got the power to choose how you go green and save money.

Check www.faypwc.com often for new PWC incentive programs.
