Is Knowledge Power?

By: Johnny Robinson

My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: Because thou hath rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me. _Hosea 4:6...

I have heard some say that knowledge is power: And some others say, that knowledge is not power unless there is some action applied to it. This then leads me to believe that, the lack of knowledge may result in the lack of power. It seems as to me, that Hosea 4: 6, is saying that the lack of knowledge can drive one into captivity (my people are destroyed for lack of knowledge). Webster says that, knowledge is gained by actual experience, or the act of understanding. Socrates said, "Knowledge of our own ignorance is the first step towards true knowledge." While Fuller said, "if you have knowledge, let others light their candles at it." As we get into this topic, Is Knowledge Power? We'll find that what we know is very little, compared to the immensity of our ignorance.

We are here to find our true place in life, and to give of our talents to the world. We are here to expand and unfold in a wonderful way, according to our God-given potential. We are here to bring forth spiritual and mental (materials) goods, that will bless humanity in many ways. It is up to each of us to develop the knowledge of how to surround ourselves with beauty and luxuries, and understand our rights to life, freedom and peace of mind. The law of belief states, "if thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth. (Mark 9:23)" To truly believe, is to accept; therefore, to truly believe in the abundant, happy and successful life invariably the best will come to you. It is a natural law that, we will know the tree by the fruit it bears (not what we think, or feel, but by its fruits). I recently planted a Watermelon seed. That seed is growing a vine. It is drawing from the infinite supply of nature all that it needs to produce its potential. The infinite supply is all around that plant. That one seed has the potential to produce from 3 to 6 watermelons, and each melon more than 100 seeds. I believe and mentally accept right now, that the same infinite supply of nature is showering me with its riches, bringing harmony, inspiration, blessings, and abundance into my life. His infinite power of life is pouring through me in an unlimited way, for this I'm thankful.

Can I not match wits with a watermelon seed? Oh, Yes I Can!!

"To every man or woman there openeth A way, and ways, and a way. And the high soul climbs the high way, And the low soul gropes the low; And in between, on the misty flats, The rest drift to and fro. But to every person there openeth A high way and a low, And every man or woman decideth the way his or her Soul shall go." _ John Oxenham.

Is knowledge power? The greatest discovery that one can make is to be made aware that there is an Infinite Power residing within them. That power enables you to overcome all problems, to rise above all hurdles, and to handle life's challenges. We were born to conquer, and equipped with the necessary attributes. We are masters of our fate and Captains of our Souls. If you're not aware of this internal power, you will be governed and controlled by events and conditions of circumstances. "I am blessed with a perfect body. It is dependable. Every organ, every cell of the body, has its function and is directed by an inner intelligence into perfect action. This body is a fine piece of equipment and its energy and skill will do whatever is required of it, this day. It responds to all my needs. I have absolute confidence in this body. It is made of the eternal energy of life" (Taken from: A Morning Meditation). Your infinite storehouse of ideas within never runs out, and your inner intelligence directs and responds to all of your needs, if you only allow it. Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. *_Rev.3:20

Rereading a book recently, (The Secret of the Ages, By: Robert Collier) I discovered some secrets with instructions for applying them to practical, everyday matters. These secrets undoubtedly weren't there before. Collier in his book said, "You have within your grasp the means to make all your dreams come true. You can learn to invoke the Law of Supply so that your pockets will never be empty. You can learn to tap immeasurable resources of genius that lies hidden in your subconscious mind-resources that will enable you to forge ahead and increase your earnings tenfold. It is simply a matter of learning the hidden principles that the masters have discovered thousands of years ago and applying them for you. Results will come quickly as you grow in your Powers (Knowledge and Understanding). Sound familiar? I must say it does. You probably won't believe this, but the book said only 10% of the people really want and seek and study for success. The other 90% only have excuses for their lack of ambition and pure laziness. This reminds me of a class I was teaching on miracles; Comparing miracles of yesterday, to invention and ideas of today; It was decided, that if some of the ideas and inventions of today were exposed yesterday they would have been called miracles. One person standing their ground said, "There aren't any miracles today, don't confuse me with facts, my minds is made up."

Learn to control your thoughts. Learn to image upon your mind only the things you want to see reflected in your outer circumstances. Your achievements of today are but the sum of your thoughts and beliefs of yesterday. Your chances of success in any undertaking can always be measured by your belief in yourself.
