Twinkle twinkle, babies. It's your favorite "starchild" buzzin' among the stars with a little chitterchat...

Well, folks still talking (or not) about that "booty smack" singer Beyonce got recently while performing in Copenhagen, Denmark. The 31-year-old singer was performing her hit single "Irreplaceable" at The Forum in Copenhagen, touching the hands of fans as she sang. As Beyonce turned during the performance, one fan within arm's length took the opportunity to slap Beyonce's blue bedazzled bodysuit-clad butt. Unsurprisingly, Bey was less-than-pleased by the action, telling the man, "I will have you escorted out right now, alright?" And then she kept singing. According to reports, he was allowed to stay for the remainder of the show. But you know that the chastisement was all worth it to him. Just saying.....if you're always shaking your booty like a stripper, don't be surprised if it gets smacked once in a while. Just saying.....

Drama on the golf circuit! The ongoing beef between LOSER Sergio Garcia and WINNER Tiger Woods went to an ugly level recently at the European Tour awards dinner in England, where Garcia made a racist comment toward the world's No. 1 golfer. Garcia was asked in jest if he would be inviting Woods to dinner during next month's U.S. Open. According to reports, Garcia responded, "We'll have him 'round every night. We will serve fried chicken." Hmmm. Well, okay. So black folks like to eat fried chicken. Cool. We also like whipping that....well, you get the gist. At the end of the day, Tiger Woods had the last word against Sergio Garcia by winning The Players Championship...while all Garcia can do is throw bones. Jealousy. Gotta love it!

Some interesting autopsy revelations surfacing behind the death of Michael Jackson. The reports proved once and for all that the iconic singer was, in fact, telling the truth about his skin transformation, as it had indeed been caused by pigmentation disorder called vitiligo. Furthermore, he had also had tattooed his lips pink, his eyebrows in brown, and his hairline in black to create a more seamless image for himself. Beyond the more cosmetic modifications to his body, the autopsy revealed beyond a shadow of a doubt that Michael could have lived much longer had his care not been so drastically mishandled. Is it me...or do all our greatest and most iconic entertainers seem to come to a tragic end? This industry.....smh.

With all the crazy and negative news out there involving today's rappers, it's good to hear some positive news now and then. Rapper 50 Cent is leveraging his fame and Street King brand to teach the urban community about conscious capitalism. "People always try and paint negative images about me. I'm the most genuine down to earth person and I didn't forget where I came from," the rapper said. Just recently, the rapper used social media to publicize the funeral of D'aja Robinson, a fellow Queens native who was killed by a stray bullet on a city bus. He helped pay for the horse and carriage that carried her casket. And throughout his career, "Fiddy" has used his fame and wealth to donate to important causes and launched entrepreneurial projects to help others establish independent wealth. You better GO, boy!

Speaking of rappers, condolences goes out to hip hop superstar Andre 3000 of OutKast, whose mother, Sharon Benjamin-Hodo, died in her sleep inside her Atlanta home, one day after the Andre's 38th birthday. Ms Sharon, who was 62 years old, was the founder and guiding force of The Starlight Camp for underprivileged children, which she ran out of the New Morning Light Missionary Baptist Church in Conley, GA — the church of her husband, Pastor Robert Hodo. She was a fixture in the Atlanta area when it came to social issues and will be missed by all. R.I.Paradise, Ms. Sharon.

We also say goodbye to more noted celebrities:

Actress Jeanne Cooper - who played the iconic character, Katherine "Kay" Chancellor on The Young and the Restless - died May 8th in Los Angeles at the age of 84.

Dr. Joyce Brothers — once considered the most famous psychologist on the planet — died May 13th in NYC at the age of 85.

Marvin Junior - the long time surviving lead singer of The Dells - died May 29th at the age of 77. The report also mentioned that another member of The Dells, Chuck Barksdale, was also very ill. So we send our condolences to all the families...and prayers to the Barksdale family.

Wrapping up on a happy note, congratulations to defending National American Indoor Football Champions - the Cape Fear Heroes. The Cape Fear Heroes with an exciting 52-37 win Saturday May 25th over the visiting Harrisburg Stampede have captured the American Indoor Football regular season title. By winning the Heroes advanced directly to the AIF Championship Game (the "SuperBowl" of the AIF) on June 8th to be held at the Crown Coliseum here in Fayetteville. And perhaps by the time you read this, we will have ALREADY won the Championship. (Claiming it already!!!) Congratulations to owner Barbara Spigner, Coach Charles Gunnings and baaaaaaadest football team on the planet - the Cape Fear Heroes. GOOOOO HEROOOOOES!!!
