Police Chief Search Officially Re-Opened

(Fayetteville, N.C.) - The search for Fayetteville's next police chief is officially underway. The police chief job has been posted and will close Friday, Oct. 5.

The public will factor into the selection of the City's next Police Chief. The City has hired Developmental Associates to assist in the selection process; they will be hearing from community members

Additionally, the general public is invited to meetings on Thursday, Sept. 13 from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the City Hall Council Chamber, located at 433 Hay St., and on Tuesday, Sept. 25 from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at Westover Recreation Center, located at 267 Bonanza Drive. In both meetings, City Manager Ted Voorhees will address submitted questions and attendees will have the opportunity to speak. Anyone wishing to speak may sign up in advance with City Public Information Officer Jennifer Lowe (jlowe@ci.fay.nc.us) or at the venue before the meeting begins.

Questions about the police chief search may be submitted to the City's Corporate Communications office by emailing nwalls@ci.fay.nc.us or calling (910) 433-1578.

The actual job posting, media release, information about the process, and timeline for the decision will be available on the City's website at www.cityoffayetteville.org by clicking on the Police Chief Search button located at the top of the page.
